Hi Kids!

Let your imagination run free at the launch of Australia's first organic play dough - sculpting competition, to be held at Mulgrave Farmers Market. Kids of all ages can enter, with the sculpting champion winning a visit for their class from Old MacDonald himself!

It's easy:

- ✓ Get your hands ready and bring your best ideas!
- ✓ Complete this entry form and bring it with you on the day to receive your playdough kit.

Entries will be judged by Old MacDonald himself at 11.00am on:

- ✓ Overall Favourite Farm character
- ✓ Best Traditional Farm character
- ✓ Most Amazing Farm character

The first 200 children who enters this FREE competition will receive a certificate of participation and an organic play dough kit. The overall winner's school receiving a visit from Old MacDonald himself!

We look forward to seeing you for a great day where you can enjoy all the great fresh local food available direct from the producer, as well as a great family fun day full of activities such as:

- ✓ Guess what is in the box?
- ✓ Face painting, music, pony rides, story time and much more....

About pomme pomme art organic early learning dough

Pomme pomme art organic early learning dough is a gift of learning and imagination for your child. Pomme pomme dough is safe, natural and eco-friendly for open ended play. We are influenced by the Reggio Emilia approach to learning which encourages children to investigate and hypothesize and actively contribute to their own learning. The ‘Reggio Emilia’ approach is perceived as a realistic, holistic, global approach to living and learning which recognizes that young children are already strong, capable and resourceful.

Australia’s First Organic Play Dough - pomme pomme dough - will be made available for sale on 6th June with all profits from the day donated to the Wise Foundation for community projects.

pomme pomme art – for what is more important than the health of your children?
